

This solicitation is for a chapter in an edited volume on the topic of Ethics, Errors, & Ethnocentrism. The chapters could be about;

1. U.S.: Concerns about ethics, errors, or ethnocentrism with reference to how specific communities, cultures, behaviors, narratives, events, etc. in the United States are explored, studied, interpreted, and presented.
2. Non-U.S.: Concerns about ethics, errors, or ethnocentrism with reference to how foreign cultures, behaviors, communities, systems, narratives, particular events, religions, etc. are presented in the United States.
3. Methodology: Ethical concerns in conducting research (collecting data, gaining access, helicopter researchers, subject safety, etc.) in cross-cultural*, multicultural*, and transnational settings.

*in the U.S. or abroad

The proposals are invited from faculty, researchers, and practitioners. In exceptional cases, the proposals from recent Ph.D. graduates would also be considered.

The volume is open to numerous disciplines including, sociology, public administration, criminology, victimology, psychology, economics, marketing, history, anthropology, philosophy, global studies, Asian studies, South Asian studies, religious studies, cultural studies, women's studies, journalism, and media studies. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Divya Sharma, Associate Professor, Justice & Law Administration by email: dsharmad@wcsu.edu.

If you are interested in submitting a chapter, please email the chapter outline and synopsis (700 to 850 words) by March 10, 2018, to sharmad@wcsu.edu. Please include a copy of your resume (brief/2-3 pages only). The shortlisted chapter authors will be invited to submit full-length chapters, and more details will be provided after the initial proposals have been received.

Thank you.
